

SASCV Awards 2016

SASCV - Prof. Stanley Yeldell New Researcher Excellence Award

The Prof. Stanley Yeldell New Researcher Excellence Award recognizes a faculty member / Post Doctoral Fellow/Scholar who are relatively new to the field, made notable contributions and show future potential to contribute to the fields of Criminology/Criminal Justice and Victimology. While prior research and/or teaching accomplishments are important, the Awards Committee will especially consider the quality of his/her paper submission. The Award will be given to the researcher during the Valedictory Session of the Third International Conference of the South Asian Society of Criminology and Victimology (SASCV), to be held during 28-29, January, 2016 at Goa, India. The award consists of a Plaque, a Certificate and Rupees Ten Thousand Cash Prize.

Rules and Regulations:

1. It will be presented to Faculty members and Post Doctoral Researchers under the age of 40.
2. Selections for this award will be on the basis of quality of the abstracts submitted by the researcher and his/her previous outstanding contribution to the field.
3. All papers submitted by researcher on the themes of the conference, empirical/theoretical/conceptual/critical reviews will be considered. Only single authored abstracts will be considered for the award.
4. Weightage will be given to 40% Curriculum Vitae, 20% abstract submission, and 40% extended abstract submission.
5. The Awards Committee will only consider the researcher's previous contribution to the field and quality of the content of the abstracts/paper. The Awards committee will not examine the Presentation skills.
6. It is open to all nationalities (an international award).

About Prof. Stanley Yeldell

Prof. Stanley B. Yeldell has been a member of the Law/Justice Department, Rowan University, USA for the past 40 Years. He was doing research with the New Jersey Administrative Office of the Courts during the late 1970s. Forty years later Yeldell is still mentoring future police officers, lawyers and judges at Rowan University. He was recently inducted into the college's Law & Justice Hall of Fame.